

ATTENTION NYPD

While you make $31,305, the average Republican Congressman makes $155,000, not to mention the salaries earned from their private businesses.

According to USA Today, with their newest tax cuts, the average Republican Congressman will save about $236,000 in taxes each year.

After 9/11, Democrat Chuck Schumer had to scramble like a madman to increase federal aid to First Responders, and you're still $100 billion under budget.*

Under Mike Bloomberg and his Republican cabinet's proposed budget cuts, the NYPD would have reached its lowest levels in a decade, cutting 1,900 officers from the force, and instead of closing 8 firehouses, up to 40 would have gone. Luckily, these cuts were defeated by a mostly-Democratic City Council.

Is this the thanks you get from Republicans for your hard work?
